

Ending Poverty in Our Lifetime

“Poverty is a social issue and together we can end it.”

- Building housing that is actually affordable for working class individuals and families who are burdened by the high cost of rent
- Creating living wage jobs that allow families to create prosperity
 - Ending food insecurity and hunger for low-income individuals and families

Equitable Opportunity

“Equality is about leveling the playing field for those left behind.”

- Creating more business funding opportunities for women, people of color, and veterans
- Providing more opportunities for buying land and homeownership for working individuals and families

Climate Conscious Transportation Planning & Community Development

“Planning and development that supports environmental health.”

- Investing in transportation and public infrastructure that both reduces congestion and fights climate change
- Prioritizing public transportation through expanding routes and subsidizing fares for low-income riders

Paid for by the Committee to Elect Loretta Smith

“We are in a fight for the heart and soul of this city. With billions of dollars in the budget, we can do better in creating opportunities for all Portlanders to thrive – regardless of their zip code.”
