Resolution

Amend the Community Budget Advisory Board to allow participation of those who live, work, worship, play or go to school in Portland.

Adopted

WHEREAS, the City Council finds that community members of a budget advisory board add valuable insight and expertise to the development of Portland's budget; and

WHEREAS, the City of Portland seeks to deploy a number of different strategies to involve and encourage participation of the many diverse communities which the City serves in the budget development process; and

WHEREAS, on November 9, 2005, the City Council approved resolution #36347, creating a City of Portland Citizen Advisory Board for a one-year pilot term ending December 31, 2006; and

WHEREAS, on December 6, 2006, the City Council approved resolution #36436, renewing the City of Portland Citizen Budget Advisory Board and determining its permanent structure; and

WHEREAS, on January 31, 2007, the City Council approved resolution #36475, renaming the Board to the City of Portland Community Budget Advisory Board; and

WHEREAS, while bureaus seek invaluable community input on individual bureau budgets and investment decisions via bureau Budget Advisory Committees, the City of Portland Community Budget Advisory Board provides a Citywide lens to support and inform Council's citywide budgetary decisions; and

WHEREAS, it is imperative to reduce barriers for more people to be civically engaged and have the opportunity to provide necessary perspectives in advising local government on budget and service issues that directly impact their communities, including those who reside, work, worship, go to school, and play within the City's jurisdictional boundaries; and

WHEREAS, as Black Communities, Indigenous Communities, People of Color, Immigrants and Refugees, and low-income people in Portland have historically and continue to experience displacement, a residency requirement for
