Emergency Ordinance

Pay settlement of Cory Elia and Lesley McLam bodily injury lawsuit in the sum of $55,000 involving the Portland Police Bureau

Passed

The City of Portland ordains:

Section 1. The Council finds:

1. Cory Elia and Lesley McLam, through their attorneys Beth Creighton, Michael E. Rose, and Laura Koistinen, have filed a lawsuit against the City for injuries resulting from an encounter with Portland Police officers during a protest on May 31, 2020.
2. The lawsuit has been investigated by Risk Management Services. The investigation indicates there is risk the City may be found liable. Therefore, in order to avoid the risk of an adverse jury award, we feel it is prudent to compromise the lawsuit at this time.
3. Risk Management Services recommends the lawsuit be compromised for the total sum of $55,000, subject to the claimant providing the City with a release in a form to be approved by the City Attorney.

NOW, THEREFORE, the Council directs:

- A. The Mayor and the City Auditor are hereby authorized to draw and deliver a check in the amount of $55,000 made payable to Creighton & Rose PC IOLTA Account.
- B. Risk Management Services will execute a payment authorization in the amount set forth in sub-paragraph (a) above.

Section 2. The Council declares that an emergency exists in order to avoid undue and costly delay in settling this bodily injury lawsuit; therefore, this Ordinance shall be in full force and effect from and after its passage by the Council.

An ordinance when passed by the Council shall be signed by the Auditor. It shall be carefully filed and preserved in the custody of the Auditor (City Charter Chapter 2 Article 1 Section 2-122)
