

CITY OF PORTLAND POLICE ACCOUNTABILITY COMMISSION

Quarterly Report
April 2022 - June 2022

The Commission convened in December 2021. From January-March 2022, the Commission held its Organizational Phase, concluding it on March 31.

DECEMBER 2021-
MARCH 2022

The work of the Commission during this time period was described in the 2022 Q1 Quarterly Report of the Police Accountability Commission.

Full commission holds work session on community engagement to discuss how to implement Community Engagement framework.

APRIL 2022

Full commission receives first briefing, from Commissioner Hardesty.

Sub-Committee on Community Engagement events starts meeting, discussing community engagement methods, and planning Town Halls.

MAY 2022

Full Commission holds briefings with IPR, CRC, and Mayor Wheeler.

Full Commission finalizes Internal Processes documents at work sessions.

JUNE 2022

Full Commission holds briefings with Commissioner Mapps, PPB Chief Lovell and Deputy Chief Frome, PPB Internal Affairs and Professional Standards Division, and PPB Police Review Board Coordinator.

Sub-Committee on Research begins meetings, brainstorms research topics and begins conducting research into practices from other jurisdictions and proposals from subject matter experts.

TIMELINE

FACT-FINDING PHASE DOCUMENTS

1. AREAS OF AGREEMENT ON BEST PRACTICES, AND PRACTICES TO AVOID, FROM OTHER JURISDICTIONS

2. AREAS OF AGREEMENT ON PROPOSALS TO CONSIDER, AND TO AVOID, FROM SUBJECT MATTER EXPERTS

The items above are being developed in this sub-committee (the Sub-Committee on Research). They will eventually be referred to the full Police Accountability Commission for approval as part of concluding the Fact-Finding Phase.

3. AREAS OF AGREEMENT ON CURRENT BARRIERS TO POLICE ACCOUNTABILITY, AND BEST PRACTICES, IN PORTLAND

The Portland-specific document is being developed directly at the full Commission level and will be approved by the full Commission as part of concluding the Fact-Finding Phase.

BRIEFINGS TO THE POLICE
ACCOUNTABILITY
COMMISSION

APRIL 26 – CITY COMMISSIONER JO ANN HARDESTY

MAY 23 – IPR DIRECTOR ROSS CALDWELL AND ASSISTANT DIRECTOR DANA WALTON-MACAULAY

MAY 23 – CRC CHAIR CANDACE AVALOS AND VICE CHAIR YUME DELEGATO

MAY 26 – MAYOR TED WHEELER

JUNE 6 – CITY COMMISSIONER MINGUS MAPPS

JUNE 16 – PPB CHIEF CHARLES LOVELL AND DEPUTY CHIEF MICHAEL FROME

JUNE 23 – PPB PROFESSIONAL STANDARDS DIVISION COMMANDER JEFF BELL AND
ACTING INTERNAL AFFAIRS CAPTAIN GREG PASHLEY

JUNE 30 – PPB POLICE REVIEW BOARD
COORDINATOR CHRISTOPHER PAILLE

POLICE ACCOUNTABILITY COMMISSION PHASES OF WORK

ORGANIZATIONAL PHASE (JANUARY-MARCH 2022)

FACT-FINDING PHASE (BEGAN APRIL 2022)

POWERS AND DUTIES

STRUCTURE AND DETAILS

TRANSITION PLAN AND BROADER SYSTEM

CONCLUDING PHASES

All phases of work are defined in the PAC Agenda and Scope. Each phase of work has specific outcomes, including documents. The Agenda and Scope also lists out ongoing projects of the PAC that are not limited to a single phase, such as community engagement and reports to the City Council.

More information at: www.portland.gov/police-accountability/resources/agenda-and-scope

WHAT'S NEXT

FACT-FINDING PHASE

The Fact-Finding Phase began in April and will end in September 2022. It focuses on identifying barriers to police accountability in Portland's current system, as well as, best practices. It also assesses practices of other jurisdictions and proposals from subject matter experts for a new system.

More information at www.portland.gov/police-accountability

COMMUNITY ENGAGEMENT EVENTS

Community engagement events are being planned by Commission members with community partners, and are expected to begin in late September or early October 2022.

A new position, the PAC Community Engagement and Communications Coordinator, began in mid-September 2022 and has begun supporting this effort.

QUARTERLY REPORT, JULY-SEPTEMBER 2022

The Police Accountability Commission will publish its quarterly report for July-September 2022 (2022 Q3), and present it to the City Council, in October or November 2022.