U. S. GRANT MARQUAM DIES

Prominent Lawyer of Portland Succumbs to Blood Poisoning.

U. S. Grant Marquam, a prominent lawyer of Portland, and a son of Judge P. A. Marquam, died at the Good Samaritan Hospital yesterday morning. Death was due to blood poisoning, resulting from a pimple which started on his upper lip 12 days ago. He was taken to the hospital Sunday.

Mr. Marquam was born in this city 42 years ago, and was a graduate of the Portland High School. He was admitted to the bar in the Oregon Supreme Court in 1885. Fifteen years ago he was married to Miss Julia Groner, of Washington County.

Besides his wife, he leaves his father and three brothers—T. A. Marquam, now in Alaska; Gus, of Portland, and W. W. Marquam, of Eugene. His surviving sisters are: Mrs. Penumbra Kelly, Mrs. T. H. Prince, Mrs. Charles McLaughlan, Mrs. Charles Hill and Mrs. C. C. Newcastle, of Portland, and Mrs. A. K. Velton, of Seattle. A sister, Mrs. S. T. Lockwood, died in Portland five years ago.

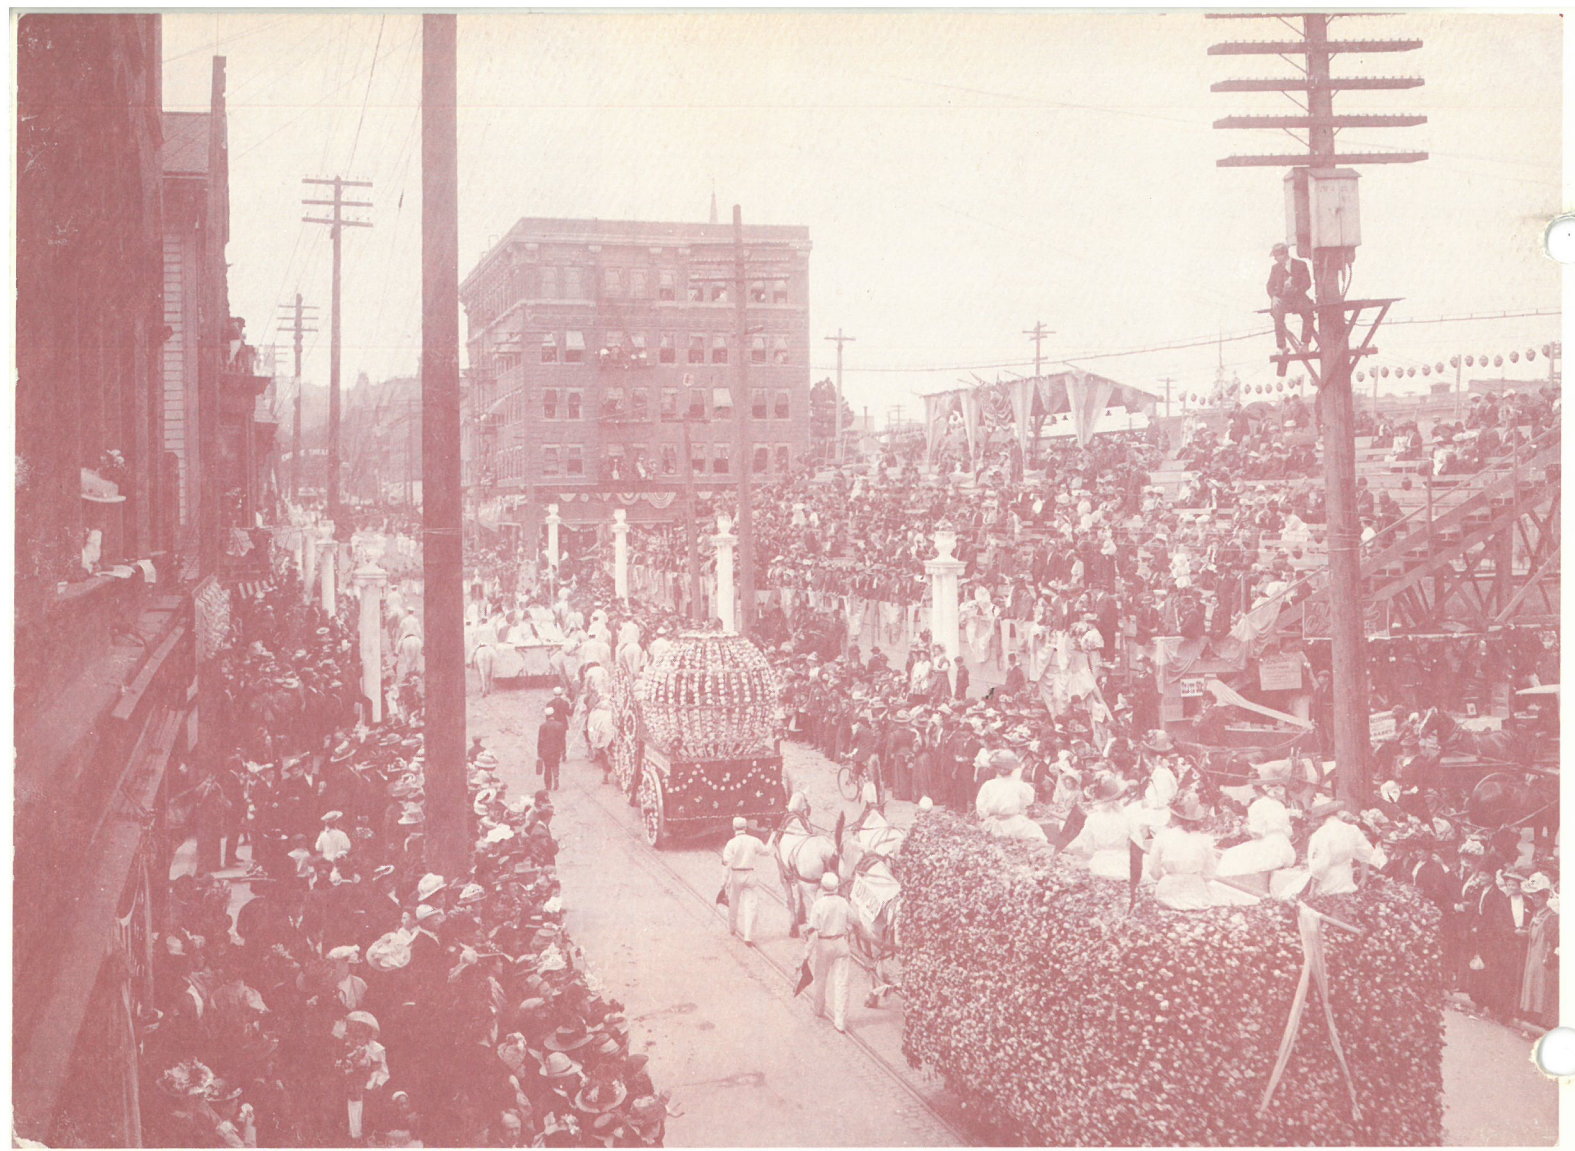

Mr. Marquam was a member of the Oregon Bar Association, Commercial Club and Woodmen of the World. These organizations are preparing for representation at the funeral ceremonies.

Grant Marquam, as he was known by his many friends, was named after General U. S. Grant, whom his father knew here in the early days.

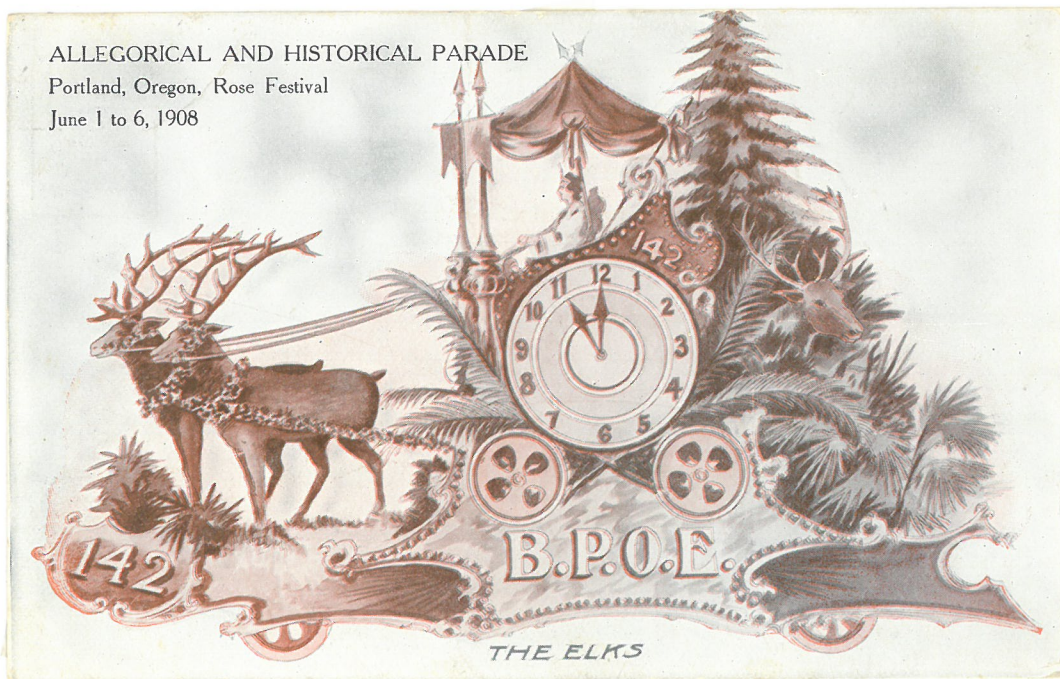

Mr. Marquam was very successful in civil practice, and was noted as a lawyer familiar with land and assessment laws. He never appeared in criminal cases.

MARQUAM—In this city, April 19, 1906, U. S. Grant Marquam, aged 42 years, 9 months and 16 days. Funeral services will be held at Holman's Chapel, corner Third and Salmon sts., at 2 P. M., Saturday, April 21. Friends invited. Interment Riverview. Services at grave private.
