Impact Statement

Purpose of Proposed Legislation and Background Information

This is the 17th Amendment to the Intergovernmental Agreement (IGA) governing the relationship between the City of Portland and Multnomah County related to the Joint Office of Homeless Services (JOHS).

- This Amendment extends the IGA for one more fiscal year (FY 2023-2024).
 - This extension allows for full funding of the City of Portland portion of the JOHS budget in FY 2023-24.
- The Amendment includes a clause directing the City of Portland to review the vitality and sustainability of the ongoing relationship with Multnomah County with respect to the JOHS in December of 2023, to determine if renewal or dissolution is the best option for FY 2024-2025.
- This is the 17th Amendment to the JOHS IGA.

Financial and Budgetary Impacts

Execution of the seventeenth amendment will not result in any changes to the FY 2023-24 budget for the JOHS, nor does it result in any longer-term financial obligations or benefits.

The JOHS intends to receive, and subcontract amended funds for the provision of homeless services and permanent housing placement activities to people experiencing homelessness in the City of Portland.

Community Impacts and Community Involvement

This Council item authorizes an amendment to the existing IGA between the City of Portland and the Multnomah County Department Joint Office of Homeless Services. The authorization of an amendment to the IGA is a largely internal activity to city government processes and the transfer of funds from the City to the JOHS to subcontract for homeless services is consistent with the purpose of the IGA. Council's action has low potential for controversy and a high level of support from the community.

100% Renewable Goal

Approval of the amendment does not impact the City's total renewable energy use.

Budget Office Financial Impact Analysis

The intergovernmental agreement (IGA) extension does not include any changes to budgeted appropriations or make new ongoing commitments. This amendment also includes a clause to review and evaluate the IGA.
