436 (411)	No	Michael Hurst	Oppose	JOHS has demonstrated extraordinary incompetence and inexcusable failure. Its governance opposes the goals of the City. As such it has proven itself harmful to the well being of the City and the City should break all ties with JOHS, especially those that involve any use of public funds. City Council is closer aligned to the will and opinion of the people. Do not pretend JOHS is a reliable source of funds - as it has demonstrated astounding waste and embarrassingly bad fiscal management. Portland is better off separating completely from the highly dysfunctional county government.	05/30/23 8:43 PM
436 (411)	No	Anonymous	Oppose	The Joint Office of Homeless Services has been worse than worthless. Time to pull the plug on that experiment.	05/31/23 2:23 AM
