

Yume Delegato

Bio: Yume Delegato was born and raised in Portland and has worked in the community for over two decades, most recently as the Vice Chair of the City of Portland's Citizen Review Committee and as Artistic Director of PDX Pop Now!, a nonprofit dedicated to making local music accessible to all Portlanders. Previously, he served as a community volunteer on the CRC's Crowd Control and Use of Force Workgroup and on the Salmonberry Trail Intergovernmental Agency's Segment Review Committee.

Statement of Interest: The passage of Measure 26-217 has provided the City of Portland with a rare and crucial opportunity to rethink our approach to Police Accountability in a cogent and meaningful way. Having served for several years within our current oversight system, I hope to bring my lived experience and understanding of what does and does not work in the current system to help the Police Accountability Commission finish their scope of work and create a new system of oversight that serves all Portlanders equitably.
