Emergency Ordinance

*Pay settlement of Joshua Sisco bodily injury lawsuit for $25,000 involving Portland Parks & Recreation

Passed

The City of Portland ordains:

Section 1. The Council finds:

1. Joshua Sisco, through attorney Matthew Kirkpatrick, has filed a lawsuit against the City for injuries resulting from being struck by an errant golf ball involving Portland Parks & Recreation on May 14, 2021.
2. The lawsuit has been investigated by Risk Management Services. The investigation indicates there is risk the City may be found liable. Therefore, in order to avoid the risk of an adverse jury award, it is prudent to compromise the lawsuit at this time.
3. Risk Management Services recommends the lawsuit be compromised for the total sum of $25,000, subject to the claimant providing the City with a release in a form to be approved by the City Attorney.

NOW, THEREFORE, the Council directs:

- A. The Mayor and City Auditor are hereby authorized to draw and deliver a check in the amount of $25,000 made payable to Robert Le, Attorney PC Trust Account.
- B. Risk Management Services will execute a payment authorization in the amount set forth in sub-paragraph (A) above.

Section 2. The Council declares that an emergency exists in order to avoid undue and costly delay in settling this bodily injury lawsuit; therefore, this Ordinance shall be in full force and effect from and after its passage by the Council.

An ordinance when passed by the Council shall be signed by the Auditor. It shall be carefully filed and preserved in the custody of the Auditor (City Charter Chapter 2 Article 1 Section 2-122)
