

We need to build as much of the region's new housing in Portland's high opportunity zones as possible!

We should aim for a much larger share of the region's growth than Metro's projection's lay out, and most of that should be within our high opportunity zones.