Impact Statement

Purpose of Proposed Legislation and Background Information

The eleven-member Citizen Review Committee (CRC) is responsible for ensuring impartial hearings of appeals, participating in public outreach efforts, and providing an advisory role to the Independent Police Review (IPR) and Internal Affairs (IA). Currently, the Committee has five vacancies, all of which would be filled by this resolution.

Volunteer CRC members are appointed by City Council to perform five primary functions:

- Gather community concerns about police services.
- Help the IPR Director develop policy recommendations to address patterns of problems with police services and conduct.
- Review and advise IPR and IA on the complaint handling process.
- Hear appeals from complainants and officers and publicly report its findings.
- Periodically serve on the Police Review Board \(https://www.portland.gov/code/3/20/140\), an advisory body to the Chief of Police that makes recommendations as to findings and propose officer discipline of sworn members.

The appointed members are:

Financial and Budgetary Impacts

There are no financial or budgetary impacts directly resulting from the approval of this resolution.

Community Impacts and Community Involvement

The Citizen Review Committee and staff at the Community Safety Division and Independent Police Review engaged in recruitment efforts with multiple organizations and individuals. The recruitment process leading to this appointment included outreach through a variety of methods to community groups across Portland. To be eligible to serve on a City of Portland advisory body, members must live, play, worship, go to school, or work or do business in the City of Portland.

Citizen Review Committee candidates are evaluated for their abilities to:

- Demonstrate ability to be impartial and objective;
- Possess sound communication and listening skills;
- Lead and function well in a group;
- Maintain high standards of confidentiality;
- Act as an appeal body member and become familiar with the relevant City Code and protocols in conducting appeal hearings and other duties; and
- Be willing to make a substantial time commitment — including trainings, monthly evening meetings, workgroup meetings, and independent review of complaint files.

100% Renewable Goal

The City's renewable energy goals are not directly impacted as a result of the approval of this resolution.
