Lower Southeast Rising Plan Kick-Off

The City of Portland is beginning a long-term planning project for Brentwood-Darlington and portions of the Ardenwald-Johnson Creek, Lents, Mt. Scott-Arleta, and Woodstock neighborhoods. As the Lower Southeast Rising Plan gets underway, we want your help!

We want to learn about neighborhood issues and needs related to housing, businesses, and transportation. To share your thoughts and opinions, we encourage you to visit the project website and take the kick-off survey:

www.portland.gov/bps/lower-se-rising

The survey will help develop and determine the plan's goals and priorities. We also encourage you to sign-up for future texts or emails about the project.

Take the kick-off survey!

Share your feedback on needs and issues in the project area by taking a short online survey:
