

First Quarter Data

Preliminary Count of Bureau Complaints, Community Complaints and Commendations

IPR and Internal Affairs received 96 complaints from community members and 18 bureau complaints that did not involve community members during January, February, and March of 2019. Community members also filed 28 commendations during that period.

Community Complaints

Eighty-two of the community complaints were received by IPR and 14 came through Internal Affairs. IPR opened one case as an independent investigation, Internal Affairs is investigating fifteen cases and intake is ongoing for 23 complaints. Thirty-six complaints were administratively closed, most commonly because no misconduct was identified. Ten complaints were referred to officers' supervisors for investigation and seven were referred to precinct commanders for follow-up. No complaints entered mediation this quarter.

Community Allegations

Though many cases are still in progress and additional allegations will likely be added, community complaints made in the first quarter of 2019 contained 184 allegations.

Preliminary Count of Community Allegations by Category

Findings in Community Cases

Findings were completed for 32 allegations from community members (from 14 full investigations) in the first quarter of 2019. Nine percent (3) of those allegations were sustained.

Finding	Number of Allegations	Percent of Allegations
Exonerated	5	16%
Exonerated w/ debriefing	0	0%
Not Sustained	12	38%
Not Sustained w/ debriefing	4	13%
Sustained	3	9%
Unfounded	8	25%
Unfounded w/ debriefing	0	0%
Total	32

Cases that are referred to supervisors for investigation also receive findings. In the first quarter of 2019 findings were completed for seven allegations from four cases sent for supervisory investigation. Supervisors found all of the allegations to be unsubstantiated after talking with community members. All of these allegations dealt with potential conduct, courtesy or procedure violations.
