

Legend

- MP2H Study Area
- ExistingStreetcar
- StreetcarLines

Localized Nuisance Flooding

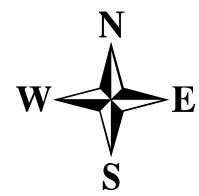

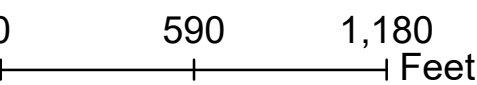

Risk Potential

The localized nuisance flooding map examines the risk potential of nuisance flooding from a missing, inadequate or non-functioning stormwater system. The analysis is aggregated at a 10-acre scale and output values are relative to the city scale. This product is under development and part of the Bureau of Environmental Services Stormwater System Plan.

These maps are working drafts and for internal purposes only.

1 inch = 587 feet

MP2H Eastside

Stormwater System Plan

Localized Nuisance Flooding Risk Potential

Working DRAFT

ENVIRONMENTAL SERVICES
CITY OF PORTLAND
working for clean rivers

Sheet No.

1 OF 1

Date Printed

12/4/2020