2703-17 N. Williams Avenue

This is a 3-story brick store and apartment building built in 1890. With the exception of one tenant, the building is vacant, boarded and locked. The one tenant is the Seven of Diamond's Teen Club, managed by Mr. Proby. All improvements in the club were made by the Club and occupies about 2,400 sq.ft. It has a new store front of wood; concrete floor is covered by vinyl. There are special paneled walls; a small cafeterial section with counters, stools, special wiring for stove, exhaust vents, an automatic sprinkler for the stove area, special sinks and ice maker. There is a small private office with paneled walls, a coffee shop area, two lavatories for men and women, one store-room, another small office, a large stage area and a dancing room. The property is heated by suspended gas furnace. There is a balcony area for a projection room. The rear hall has an exhaust fan. There is a gas panel wall heater and another modern office.
