EXCITING NEWS!

PORTLAND CHARTER COMMISSION ADVANCES CHANGE TO CITY GOVERNMENT TO PORTLAND VOTERS

Portland voters will have the chance to approve a ballot measure in November that improves how our city government works.

Coalition of Communities of Color

A NEW GOVERNMENT STRUCTURE

If approved, the measure will establish a new government structure, in which an expanded City Council of twelve members will focus on setting policy and approving budgets, while a Mayor carries out laws, and a professional City Administrator manages city services like water and roads. The consistent leadership of a City Administrator will improve the efficiency of city services and ensure City Council has more capacity to address the city's challenges.

Coalition of Communities of Color

ALLOWING VOTERS TO RANK CANDIDATES

Candidate	1st	2nd	3rd	4th	5th
Avery	●	○	○	○	○
Bennie	○	○	○	○	●
Charlie	○	●	○	○	○
Desmond	○	○	●	○	○
Evelyn	○	○	○	●	○
Foster	○	○	○	○	○

If approved, the measure will allow voters to rank candidates in their order of preference for all elected offices, including City Council, Mayor, and Auditor. Voters will have more choices to elect candidates that share their values and that will champion their issues. Our democracy is strongest when all voters have a voice to represent their perspective on our City Council.

Coalition of Communities of Color

GEOGRAPHIC DISTRICTS

If approved, the measure will create four new geographic districts in the city, with three council members representing each district. Districts will increase geographic representation for all residents and ensure communities have multiple pathways to make their concerns heard. Elected officials will be better positioned to meet with communities, solve localized issues, and more effectively do their jobs.

@CommRubio Carmen, we in PDX are setting records for gun deaths and shootings. Most of the victims are young black men. Besides "declarations" what are you doing? PS Traffic barrels, unarmed park rangers & basketball leagues don't count. @ChiefCLovell @tedwheeler @Mingus4Portland pic.twitter.com/lDagyNcPjo
