. Shared from City of Portland Commissioner Jo Ann Hardesty:
Friday night I stayed up all night and personally went to downtown Portland to observe the unrest that took place, and Portland, I'm tired. The Black community is tired. The systemic racism constantly targeting, criminalizing, and killing Black people is not just exhausting, it is frustrating, it is terrifying, it is enraging, it is painful, and it is deadly. Add to the mix a global pandemic where Black and brown people are getting sick and dying at astronomical rates compared to white people; we can no longer continue acting stunned or shocked at the unrest. We need to focus our attention on the people's pain and the source of that pain, rather than obsess over the narrative of destruction when people protest. This is not about one murder or one incident. It's about the entire history and system that we've been living in and that's what we need to come to terms with and tackle head on. We need to dismantle the conditions and systems that led to these responses in the first place. Our communities are asking for justice – not just for this one murder, but for all the acts of violence that have occurred. Beyond justice we absolutely need to build a system that creates a future safe for everyone, and that means fighting for systemic change. I also want to take the moment to set the record straight: As the acting president while the Mayor was out of town last night, I was the one to call for a curfew this weekend. Given the incredibly high tension during this time, I want to give Portland a moment to cool off and regroup ourselves. I understand the concerns that this would lead the way to enhanced policing, and I say this unequivocally: policing is not the solution to community voices being ignored or silenced. This is a moment to recalibrate and figure out how each and every Portlander will act to support the Black community because we cannot accept the conditions and systems that continue to harm us. I offer you a few ways:
• The State of Oregon's Officers Bill of Rights is the state law that protects officers engaged in misconduct. If you're wondering how to impact a system where police officers around the country and our state avoid reprimand, contact your state legislators and call on them to change this.

• Call on Governor Brown to convene a special short session. In addition to responding to the COVID-19 crisis, the Governor should make police accountability and support for Oregon's communities of color a priority that the state must act on now.
• Portland Committee on Community-Engaged Policing (PCCEP) is holding a special community listening session on the murder of George Floyd Sunday, May 31 at 5pm: us02web.zoom.us/j/4056682253

I'm committed to working with my colleagues on how to address these issues at the local level, starting (but not ending) with the full review of all Portland Police Bureau specialty units and fighting for a fair police contract. Our communities deserve to be heard, they deserve to be respected, they deserve justice, and they deserve to heal."

Minute 7 of this broadcast at KGW acknowledges the media role in skewing the coverage of the protests. Commissioner Jo Ann Hardesty, President and CEO of the Urban League of Portland Nkenge Harmon Johnson, and a bit of the earlier posted clip from Fire Chief Sara Boone speak to the real damage, trauma and pain underlying the protests. It would have been so much better if it had been the LEAD IN to the broadcast. But it IS there.

After consultation between Metro Council President Lynn Peterson and Commissioner Jo Ann Hardesty, the spires at the Oregon Convention Center will be yellow tonight, as a symbol of hope. For our community members who are feeling unheard - we see you and are with you in the quest for justice and equity. 🙏

Let's aim for real visible intentional inclusion shall we. That we will not rest until the community says enough! You are doing enough. When we make space and include then every color in the rainbow shines their brilliant hue. We have so much passion in our city. I want to believe that the city/state I have called home for 2 decades will do better. Will do more.

Earl Blumenauer to Commissioner Jo Ann Hardesty

May 30 2020 09:49 PM

In times like these, it's imperative that we support, listen to, and amplify the Black voices and community leaders in Portland and across the country.

To that end...

Portland City Commissioner Jo Ann Hardesty

"Yesterday started off as a day of reflection, it started off as a day of truth, it started as a day of acknowledging that for too long black bodies have been disposable in the United States of America. There are many, many, many activities that took place that were peaceful, that were clear, that were direct. I believe there was a small group of people who came out last night with every intention of tearing stuff up, and they were going to tear it up no matter how many of them there were. I saw remarkable courage that we've seen over and over and over again by people who are continually damaged by their government. But I want to be crystal clear - what happened last night had nothing to do with black America. It was not about standing up for black people's rights. It wasn't about acknowledging death and harm that has been taking place. It was merely a small group of people who decided this is a great opportunity to steal stuff and break stuff.

This City Council - your City Council has been working night and day since the pandemic began to try to help this community deal with the health crisis that we're in knowing that black and brown people die at astronomical rates from COVID-19. That's where we've put our energy. That's where we've put our strength. And then for some small group of individuals to decide at the moment we're about to open back up for business - let's just bust up all the businesses and steal all the stuff - that is inexcusable. Our community - all of us - will suffer long term because of that selfishness.

I want to speak to the people though that understand protest, that understand how to speak truth to power, that understand the difference between right and wrong. I'm talking to you now. It is imperative that you are not silent. Silence is acceptance and I will not accept that we need justice for black people at the expense of tearing up our community. We can do both - we can get justice for black people, but we don't have to destroy our community to do it.

I've always been for non-violent direct action. I will end with this quote from MLK: 'I will not remember the words of my enemy, but the silence of my friends.'

John Pfeifer May 30 2020 09:54 PM

maybe the black voices should tell the community to stop the violence and riots. Apparently the voices are silent. They must want it to escalate. I am ashamed of the black voices. Why are you not talking to them ?

Laura Hoey May 30 2020 09:55 PM

It's not the Black community's job to tell white anarchists shit. YOU go tell all those white people to stop their violence.

Marsha Schauer May 30 2020 09:56 PM

John Pfeifer What? I have heard many black voices speaking out. Do some research. And why do black people now have to deescalate this situation!

John Pfeifer May 30 2020 09:57 PM

Marsha Schauer Police kill white people too. Do they need to riot ?

Jack Roberts May 30 2020 10:01 PM

John Pfeifer we see you

Maranda Bish-Brown May 30 2020 10:02 PM

Yes...I think you or people you know would if your community was killed as regularly as black people. I mean, I'd hope so.

Joan Hess May 30 2020 10:03 PM

John Pfeifer It's a white person problem. It's not the responsibility of black people to explain racism to you.

Sarah Borgognone May 30 2020 10:05 PM

The majority of people arrested in the rioting were white people. Look it up. This was a direct insult to the black community. Complete gaslight. There is a racism problem and it's up to all of us to find a solution. One thing I know for sure, this is NOT what ending police brutality against black people is about.

Laura Hoey May 30 2020 10:06 PM

John Pfeifer I think white people are rioting. "The looters were masked, but they appeared young and predominantly white. That was a contrast to a peaceful vigil Friday night in North Portland, where many of the protesters were black." Get your white people under control, John. <https://www.wweek.com/news/2020/05/30/portland-looters-raid-apple-store-pioneer-place-and-downtown-shops-until-wee-hours/>

Jenny Riggs May 30 2020 10:05 PM

No, it was a group of people intent on shocking a society that values property over people. It's bigger than honoring George Floyd. Property is not more valuable than people. "Urban riots are a special form of violence. They are not insurrections. The rioters are not seeking to seize territory or to attain control of institutions. They are mainly intended to shock the white community. They are a distorted form of social protest. The looting which is their principal feature serves many functions. It enables the most enraged and deprived Negro to take hold of consumer goods with the ease the white man does by using his purse. Often the Negro does not even want what he takes; he wants the experience of taking. But most of all, alienated from society and knowing that this society cherishes property above people, he is shocking it by abusing property rights. There are thus elements of emotional catharsis in the violent act." "A profound judgment of today's riots was expressed by Victor Hugo a century ago. He said, 'If a soul is left in the darkness, sins will be committed. The guilty one is not he who commits the sin, but he who causes the darkness.' Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr.

Lorna Lovett MacPherson May 30 2020 10:13 PM

Jenny Riggs if you watched any of the looting and destruction you saw that there were as many white people involved as people of color.

Jenny Riggs May 30 2020 10:17 PM

Lorna Lovett MacPherson Yes, Lorna -and that's excellent. White people need to be on the front lines of this, challenging racism against their fellow humans. Black people need us to use the privilege of our white skin to help and protect them. As a white person, how can I stand by and see what happens to them and not do something?

Jenny Riggs May 30 2020 10:17 PM

MLK actually spoke about how black and white people were side by side in the 1960s riots, and how that was a good thing.

Jason Townsend yes, they did, and that's unfortunate. But in the 40ish hours of live footage I watched from the Minneapolis protests, I saw countless business owners outside their businesses supporting the protest, literally saying "my store items can be replaced and my building can be rebuilt, but George Floyd's life cannot be replaced." The Palestinian owner of the Ghandi Mahal restaurant said "let my building burn." He understood that there's sometimes collateral damage in a fight for equal rights. I watched a black convenience store owner outside his business, supporting the protesters who looted his store. I also watched cops tear gas journalists standing on a street corner all by themselves. I watched cops tear gas a group of protesters who were doing nothing but standing around. Then the cops drove away. It was sport for them.

Nonviolence hasn't worked. You should be able to see that.

Brian Floyd May 30 2020 10:23 PM

Lauren Watson we haven't seen nonviolence so we don't know if it works or not

Vera Kern May 30 2020 10:29 PM

Brian Floyd that's dumb there was plenty of peaceful protests going on you just refused to see it

Brian Floyd May 30 2020 10:34 PM

Vera Kern I wasn't talking about "peaceful" demonstrations, I was going deeper. Nonviolence is the absence of violence and this is all about violence as long as there is division because division is violence

Vera Kern May 30 2020 10:36 PM

Brian Floyd the division has been around and accepted a long time

Brian Floyd May 30 2020 10:37 PM

Vera Kern indeed

Lauren Watson May 30 2020 10:44 PM

Brian Floyd Should we wait another 60 years to find out? And broken windows isnt violence. Human lives matter more than property.

Lauren Watson May 30 2020 10:45 PM

Brian Floyd wtf do you mean we haven't seen it? Kids put flowers in natl guard rifles in the 60s and were shot point blank for it.

Patrick C Tempel May 30 2020 11:09 PM

Lauren Watson That's not even close to true. The kids at Kent State who were shot were innocent bystanders, one was an ROTC cadet. The ones at D.C. who put flowers in rifle barrels weren't shot, "point-blank". Gandhi and Martin Luther King Jr. changed things with non-violence.

Bonnie Malone May 31 2020 12:27 AM

Patrick C Tempel Also not true. A few of the victims at Kent State were not protesters.

Patrick C Tempel May 31 2020 12:31 AM

Bonnie Malone OK, two of them weren't. "Krause and Miller were among the upward of 300 students who gathered to protest the expansion of the Cambodian Campaign, which President Richard Nixon had announced in an April 30 television address one week earlier. Scheuer and Schroeder were in the crowd of several hundred others who had been observing the proceedings at distances of more than 300 feet from the firing line, many like them between classes." Tamara West Jun 01 2020 11:20 PM

Adrian Avery-Johnson People who eavesdrop on the social media of groups like Bogaloo Bois say the call is out for those people to come to cities where there are protests, to increase violence. Not unlike the way the Clark Co. Proud Boys operate in Portland.

I'm with those who say that if there are some who carried this protest to the level of looting and burning, then maybe we shouldn't just dismiss those actions as over the top and unnecessary. Once again, we are dismissing the "voices" that had to go to a level that shocked or disturbed everyone enough to get their attention. If this were happening to a white community, (isn't that just a laugh), we'd be doing the same thing! Stop dismissing what's going on as "too much." It's only too much to those who want to maintain the status quo of violence against the black, brown, indigenous, Asian, and poor white communities. Sure, there are efforts to make things better for these communities, I'm not ignoring that, but it's too little too late in my estimation, and unless we are forced to see these things, we'll keep putting band-aids on torn corpses.

If this were happening to a white community, (isn't that just a laugh), we'd be doing the same thing! Stop dismissing what's going on as "too much." It's only too much to those who want to maintain the status quo of violence against the black, brown, indigenous, Asian, and poor white communities. Sure, there are efforts to make things better for these communities, I'm not ignoring that, but it's too little too late in my estimation, and unless we are forced to see these things, we'll keep putting band-aids on torn corpses.

Please be cautious about White Supremacy paramilitary groups taking advantage of this critical time. Friends in Omaha and Charlotte tell me that white men were the persons throwing bottles, rocks, and bricks at the police. Video from Minneapolis confirms that white men are instituting violence. We must watch the fascists who want to use this moment.

Julianne Still Thrift I can believe that!!

Laurie Elliott May 30 2020 10:38 PM

Julianne Still Thrift Agreed, there were young white males in Portland gleefully breaking in the Chase Bank windows and starting fires. KGW video showed them unmasked and cheering their destruction.

Julianne Still Thrift so ANTIFA are "right wing" now? ♂ ♂

Julianne Still Thrift May 30 2020 10:44 PM

Jeremy Martin No. Different groups, silly. The White Supremacy Terrorists are well armed, calculated, and using this moment. They are captured and identified on video.

Jacques LaPointe May 30 2020 10:22 PM

You sir , are full of it. That small group of people amounted to a very large amount across the nation. A quite large amount of $$ in destruction. Small businesses destroyed beyond recovery, no excuse in our nation of Constitutional Law to not enforce the law. Unless you have a Democrat run state that coddles and releases felons early, no bail arrests returned to society, and gives sanctuary to those that have no respect for our laws. Step down, so The Republic,that I and many others Pledge Our Allegiance Too, can be restored.

Laura Hoey May 30 2020 10:26 PM

At what point in history are you looking to restore it to?

Jacques LaPointe May 31 2020 01:16 AM

Laura Hoey No point in dialogue. Those with TDS will never understand.

Laura Hoey May 31 2020 03:49 PM

Jacques LaPointe So you can't explain your comment? You just revert to insults? I politely, and respectfully asked a question and you hurled insults. How are we supposed to learn from each other, if you refuse to engage?

Jacques LaPointe May 31 2020 06:28 PM

Laura Hoey If I have to explain, you will never understand ! Reread my original comment the answer you seek is in it, you just can't comprehend.

Riots are the expression of people who have no voice. Even Dr. Martin Luther King knew that. In fact I have paraphrased his quote. We watched a 21st century lynching in real time on video. We are done. This has been going on for too long and law enforcement will NOT reign in their own. This is NOT over one isolated incident. Black people, poor people HAVE protested peacefully and nothing has changed. Colin Kaepernick is a perfect example. He was crucified for doing exactly what you are asking (and we really just would like it if black people would just shut up, quit pointing their finger at us , and go away... "I mean I don't own slaves ffs"). And in fact, it is just getting worse everyday. We are sick to death of the unchecked injustices on every front perpetrated on the poor and POC EVERYDAY by the rich white and powerful. And might I add male and white. They will NEVER give that up. Oppressors never give up their privilege and leverage over the oppressed. Ever. They use law enforcement to protect their property, not human lives, starting with when black people ACTUALLY WERE property. We are nothing but cogs in their machinery. Of no value unless we serve their wants, and are replaceable. For black people it's worse. Trust me when I say, I share your anguish at what seems like senseless violence. My heart is broken that in the country I believe in and am grateful to have been born to, THIS is where we are at. I have been an activist my WHOLE life and THIS, this is what has come of it!!!! It culminated with Trump?! The physical embodiment of our collective rotten underbelly. Are you freakin' kidding me? It's enough to bring despair to the strongest among us. But, I also am acutely aware of why it is happening. You and I have the privilege of sitting back and watching this on media from the safety of our couches and wondering why. We are not the black mother who sends her male children, husband, father, etc out into the world KNOWING that there is a great chance that they may never come home. And not from a car accident, or work injury, etc. But from state sanctioned murder. I cannot begin to understand living with that fear and pain every goddamned minute of my life. I will NEVER know. But it is past time to listen to those that do. It is past time for us to take responsibility for it. But until those who get away with it are held accountable, I expect this to get worse not better. We are headed for more if we don't wake up. Sorry for the long response. It is my fervent hope that this IS the wake up call that we as a society and nation will hear and rise up to. We are being called so loudly to do so.

I am despairing for our country right now; my heart aches. I want justice for everyone but seeing the cities burn is horrible. Utterly heartbroken and depressed that we have Trump, Covid, civil rights violations and now our cities across the country in flames. Our health, our economy, and social justice are all being destroyed. I totally support non violent protest. I marched in non violent protests before Covid. I'm 65 with health conditions and I am staying home. I abhor violence. I want to know if it is anarchists taking advantage of the protests to destroy our city.

"A riot is the language of the unheard" from MLK, Jr. You can not denounce the riot until the cause of the riot is addressed and fixed. This, in the modern era, has been happening since 1965. It still isnt fixed, so there will still be riots.

The Mystery Box Show to Commissioner Jo Ann Hardesty

May 30 2020 08:39 PM

From Portland's Commissioner Jo Ann Hardesty. Destruction is not the answer. We all want a world where justice is the driving force behind our actions. And even if we don't know how to get there, or what that looks like... this is NOT what it looks like, nor how to get there.

Be safe out there, everyone. Speak truth to power with wisdom.

Jo Ann Hardesty: 'What happened last night had nothing to do with black America'

UPDATE: Here are some of the notable things I heard at this morning's press conference -

Mayor Ted Wheeler:
"We need to take a long look in the mirror and be truthful about what we see in ourselves and our institutions of power."
"I cannot condone last night's violence... nor will I stand silent as men like George Floyd are murdered by the very institutions that are meant to serve and protect them."
"This is a tipping point. This is a national reckoning. We have to choose which path to follow."
"Enough of the violence."

Portland Fire & Rescue Chief Sara Boone:
To rioters "You have put so many lives in harms way."
"The is not about one killing or one moment. If you really want to help understand and change the system... see the world through our eyes, black and brown people."

Portland Police Bureau Acting Chief Chris Davis:
Last night was "one of the worst nights in Portland city history."

Commissioner Jo Ann Hardesty:
Quoting Dr. Martin Luther King Jr... "I will not remember the words of my enemy, but the silence of my friends."

I want to thank everyone who made this campaign possible from the bottom of my heart. We truly continued to build a system change movement in the city of Portland. Together, we continued making the case to the public and elected officials that we must create a more just, equitable, and representative Portland City Council. No matter what, our work continues, and I look forward to working with all of you to make Portland a better place for everyone.

Julia-- In the immortal words of Dick Tuck: The people have spoken--the bastards..... You struggled hard, essentially from the position of an insurgent; and the only way you could have won was through an insurgent's tactics....And by that, I mean having people on knock on a bazillion doors and talk to a bazillion people face to face.... Whether you/we all would have been able to do that, that was rendered moot by both a virus and the federal government's grotesque mismanagement....You got beaned by the Fickle Finger of Fate (as the Boomers would say). But in the immortal words of that great Left Hegelian, Casey Stengel: it ain't over 'till it's over. You came out of this run stronger, with more people, and tighter core. The Spanish Flu, the Hong Kong Flu, and the Swine Flu of the seventies didn't last forever....And neither will the novel coronavirus. You have our numbers. Let us know when you're ready to roll.... Even as the state begins to slowly reopen, people are still advised to stay home as much as possible. However, people living on the streets cannot shelter in place, which is the most important way to prevent the spread of COVID-19 and protect public health. I applaud the City of Portland and Commissioner Jo Ann Hardesty's office for the rapid response to set up houseless camps during this crisis. I am committed to providing houseless communities with the support they need to form intentional villages on properties throughout the city, where they will be provided trash, sanitation, water, food, and mental and physical health services until we've addressed the longer term issue of a lack of affordable housing and supportive housing for those who need it. We also must do everything we can to expand rental assistance and rent and mortgage forgiveness during this crisis.

Anyone who has ever lived in "affordable housing" can related to this!

Margot Black is calling for the following:
1.)For Sam Chase to return Jeff Reingold's $250 donation to his campaign. With Reingold's retaliatory and appalling behavior exposed, we need to now hold ourselves and each other accountable by not supporting it.

2.)For all my fellow candidates and current elected officials to repudiate IPM – we must ensure that bad actors do not have a foothold at the city. Jack Kerfoot for PDX 2020 Tera for PDX Loretta Smith Dan Ryan Rachelle Quick James "Jas" Davis for City Council Julia DeGraw for Portland City Council Commissioner Jo Ann Hardesty Chloe Eudaly Portland City Commissioner Cynthia Castro James "Jas" Davis for City Council

3.)For HomeForward to fire IPM immediately, from the Yards and from all existing contracts.

4.)For a licensure system for all landlords and property managers.

5.)For a Tenant's Right to Organize with a requirement for landlords to come to the table to collectively bargain rental agreements. And for a Rental Services Office that affirmatively supports tenant organizing.

6.)And lastly, for a dramatically expanded Rental Services Office with investigatory and enforcement arms so there is someone to call, and someone to hold landlords and property managers accountable to the high standards all Portlanders deserve.

I have known Jo Ann to be the voice of reform for as long as I have been an advocate. I remember the first time I heard her speak in Salem at the capitol as we were trying to repeal Measure 11. Great to see Jo Ann and Mike together here! Thank you both!

Violet Kirkland Your nasty reaction () to this post and your trolling led me to your page. You have a penchant for posting your hate for the public to see but you don't allow comments. Afraid you can't defend your positions? Well, you're right. You can't. I see why you wouldn't want to have to either.

Chloe Eudaly to Commissioner Jo Ann Hardesty

May 08 2020 02:24 AM

Thanks again for your endorsement, Commissioner Jo Ann Hardesty!
"Commissioner Eudaly is one of those unique public servants who doesn't take on the easy issues. She has been a champion for renters and housing rights. Like myself, Commissioner Eudaly is a strong woman with strong opinions who is unapologetic about sharing those opinions. What I have learned from working with Commissioner Eudaly is that if you are committed to a public policy issue, no matter how long it takes, you can pass good public policy and bring people along."

Here's who I'm voting for Wheeler? Really? I find that rather shocking. Honestly, I'm surprised to see he's running for re-election. He didn't seem like he enjoyed being mayor very much, or wanted to run again.

You'll still be entitled to the minimum of $205 weekly. If you netted more than that, you'd be entitled to file for more. I've filled out the form and it doesn't even ask about my income pre-pandemic.

How ridiculous! Self employed already filed ! And have been waiting 5 weeks or more now ! This care act never stated that the self employed is required to jump through all these other hoops now . Wth ! Absolutely absurd . You have to print it out and send it back. Why not make it available to fill out online ? Jesus not everyone has a damn printer. So now if independent contractor you have to send this crap back and wait 4-6 more weeks This is just a damn joke they are not going to help the independent contractors like they promised

Charleen Hill You can email OED_PUA_INFO@oregon.gov to request a secure email link, then attach your PUA application and weekly claim reports to the secure email. If you already have a login/account for the regular Unemployment website, complete the PUA application and certification process at <http://workinginoregon.org/pua/en/>

Charleen Hill Apr 29 2020 12:45 AM

I looked at that you can not fill forms out online

Charleen Hill Apr 29 2020 12:47 AM

Dennis Christie You have to download this file and print it to fill it out

Dennis Christie Apr 29 2020 01:10 AM

Charleen Hill I was able to download the file to my iPhone and fill it out.

Arwyn Daemyir Apr 29 2020 02:52 AM

There is a mechanism for emailing the form that you fill out on your phone or computer. And no, a lot of us self employed folk followed what the job department said and waited to file until there was a mechanism. In fact, this form is significantly easier to fill out and more applicable than the standard UI application form (which I looked at and attempted to fill out, but it wasn't really doable). Which isn't to say this process hasn't been frustratingly slow, but to respond to progress on doing exactly what we all want -- getting money to unemployed folk not eligible for standard unemployment insurance -- by saying that they're never going to get us monies we need and are entitled to is, y'know, pretty absurd.

its absurd that oregon is so behind the times that they can't get this done ! It's absurd that people are now going on two months waiting for income It's absurd to assume everyone has a computer or a printer or a phone that is in need . All While families are out of food , food banks are strapped. People our out of medicine ! Yeah that's absurd .

Ok, potentially important and might not be immediately obvious: I've been told that this address is also for use by people applying for an extension to regular benefits. That the way they've done it previously is out the window, that extensions are being handled through this rather than through the regular unemployment department.

Is this not confusing [in green]?? The question doesn't ask if you worked in another State, and yet, that's what the explanation says it's for???? And, what is SUB? The regular UE benefits?

2. Did you apply for, receive, or would you be eligible to receive if you had ever applied for:

(1) Unemployment compensation under any State or Federal law?	<input type="checkbox"/> YES <input type="checkbox"/> NO
(2) Any amounts for loss of wages due to illness or disability?	<input type="checkbox"/> YES <input type="checkbox"/> NO
(3) Any type of private income protection insurance?	<input type="checkbox"/> YES <input type="checkbox"/> NO
(4) Any amount as a supplemental unemployment benefit (SUB)?	<input type="checkbox"/> YES <input type="checkbox"/> NO

Select Yes if you worked in other state, and would you be eligible for unemployment benefits if you filed there.

Select Yes if you would be eligible to receive disability or illness benefits if you applied for them.

Select Yes if you would be eligible to receive any amount from private income protection insurance.

I sent an email to the address and included the application as a pdf. I haven't received anything in response. It mentions getting a secure email link so i guess i was expecting a reply? I also have already applied for unemployment but haven't heard back. I've been making weekly claims and i'm unsure if that covers my bases as far as the claims go. Do i still file weekly claims where i was?

Do you have any idea what is going on? I know Commish Hardesty is totally clueless from her posts, but do you realize that there is a month long back-log from your friend Governor Brown fumbblings for checks coming out to starving families? wtf are you thinking? Things look all good from your windows?

Facebook User May 02 2020 08:03 PM

I support this with reservations. Allowing "gig" workers is allowing exploitation. All employees deserve worker's compensation and unemployment insurance funded IN ADVANCE through payroll taxes. I hope that our leaders, and workers, will learn from this and put a stop to prepadory employers who hire "gig" workers. Have LYFT and Uber paid unemployment insurance premiums? If someone is a legitimate sole proprietor who provides professional services to multiple businesses, fine, but they can and should have been paying their own unemployment insurance premiums. The emergency is not the lack of unemployment insurance, it is the failure to pay for it and then demanding it.

I'm the candidate with the strongest coalition of supporters. I'm proud to have earned the endorsements of educators, public sector workers, climate justice advocates, Oregon progressives, and, of course, the indomitable Portland City Commissioner Jo Ann Hardesty.

Portland Association of Teachers, Portland Community College Faculty Federation and Academic Professionals, Portland Community College Federation of Classified Employees; Local 3922, AFSCME Local 189, Protec17, Oregon Progressive Party, The Street Trust, Portland Clean Air, Sunrise Movement PDX, Bill McKibben, Bill Bradbury

You got my vote!

Barrett Ross May 01 2020 09:42 PM

Thomas Newsom same. BTW. Are there any judges worth voting for?

Lew Church May 02 2020 09:25 PM

WWeek has always been an "inbetween" newspaper. They used to have the motto on the masthead, "Progressive and Proud of It!" but that went by the wayside. Lots of their endorsements for May 19 primary tended to follow the Joe Biden model -- older white gentleman (gay or straight) with experience and independences -- aka, Sam Adams not Chloe, Mark Hass not either of the women lawyers running for Secty of State (Jamie McLeod-Skinner and Shemia Fagan), Chris Smith for Metro (not Cameron Whitten or Mary Nolan), Dan Ryan for Fish's seat on council (not Julia or Tara Hurst), etc. One paper endorsed Keith Wilson (truck company owner) for Chloe's seat; one paper endorsed Mingus Mapps for Chloe's seat (Mingus's direct mail piece says he against "too much drama" on city council -- so THAT is Chloe's real name, etc.). JoAnn Hardesty, of course, endorsed Julia, Chloe, Wheeler, Mike Schmidt for DA, Carmen Rubio (who may get in with more than 51% May 19 and no runoff, a good thing), etc. -- Lew / PSU. Mercury, even, endorsed some folks good, some not so good -- Mercury endorsed Chloe and Sarah (for mayor), etc.**

I think one of the reasons I went against the WW picks was because they celebrated how certain people had a large rolodex and knew how to rub shoulders with the elite. Pretty progressive stuff.

For the 50th Anniversary of #EarthDay, join me in demanding meaningful climate actions at Sunrise Movement PDX's Earth Day Virtual Rally today at 4pm, which will be the largest-ever digital rally for climate justice in #PDX! Commissioner Jo Ann Hardesty and many other local leaders will be speaking. Then, join us as we phone bank for my campaign afterward. Show up for the Earth! #EarthDayAtHome

P.S. Environment justice is extremely important to me, which is why I'm endorsed by Sunrise Movement PDX, national climate leader Bill McKibben, former Oregon Secretary of State and anti-LNG activist Bill Bradbury, and Portland Clean Air!

Commissioner Jo Ann Hardesty and I are both long time activists and advocates, but we didn't meet until my 2016 campaign when I won her endorsement during a marathon coffee date at Bipartisan Cafe. I was thrilled when she decided to run in 2018, and I'm pleased to announce that I've earned her endorsement again! During this crisis, we have jointly focused on critical services to people experiencing homelessness, tenant protections, and keeping all Portlanders--renters and homeowners--in their housing. I'm so thankful to have a progressive partner on City Council who brings a keen eye to everything we do. Thank you, Commissioner Hardesty!

"ain't nobody got time for that"..... I would rather have all my teeth pulled without painkillers than to listen to Bonhead'amici or Jo Ann Hardesty talk at ALL.

Diane Friedman Apr 15 2020 12:43 AM

Clayton Hendrix You are the reason this country has gone to hell in a hand basket. You and all repukans supporting dumpster are directly responsible for this pandemic. If you are not obeying stay at home, only go out for essentiels, social distancing and wearing a mask. The best I can hope for is that you and family get the virus and never recover.

Diane Friedman is an ardent supporter of all things, Democrat, therefore she wants you and your family DEAD. Get it? But, see, YOU are the problem with this country? What a political prostitution ring, they are. All for the "right" to kill fetuses and expect SPECIAL RIGHTS, for whatever they come up with to make them "different." Idiots. We own them, now, though.

Diane Friedman LOL....you are either a troll or too skanky to include your picture. You have zero credibility and if you come back, I will only insult you. I hope you and yours get it too. Then you will see it is not the "killer" that it is promoted to be. Oregon has 1500 cases (approx.) with 55 deaths (approx.). Those approximations will NOT cause a huge change in the equations. 1500 cases out of 4.2 MILLION people in Oregon. It is NOT spreading that fast. Out of 1500 cases, 55 died for a death rate of 3.6% which is higher here than the 2-% quoted elsewhere BUT most of them have underlying issues. Quarantine them and anyone KNOWN to be sick and leave me alone.

Clayton Hendrix Look you are a imbecile. You are the one who chose to come out and insulted and disrespect Congress woman Bonamici. If you can come to this platform and do that. Do not think you won't get reprisal. THINK AGAIN. DO NOT presume to scare me with threats. I have fought bigger battles then a punk like you. I am a Democrat and will defend my RIGHT to honor those in politics that hold the same values I do. So SASHAY your sorry self to information that explains OUR Constitution, Bill of Rights and DEMOCRACY.

Diane Friedman "The best I can hope for is that you and family get the virus and never recover." I share your frustrations with bonehead trump supporters, but lets not wish irrecoverable illness on anyone. With all due respect, we should not sink to their level, even when their arrogant stupidity infuriates us.

Diane Friedman I know you're angry and have every right, but it's best to just block the obnoxious cretins. But then again, I understand, I vent too sometimes. Their child president is killing people and they still don't get it. I have no idea what's wrong with these people but I do know, trying to educate or reason with them doesn't help.

Dustin Ossmann Apr 15 2020 03:56 PM

Frank Savage that's more of a Democrat style than Trump. Remember the chants to kill a child and burn his school down for smiling at an Indian? And Diane's profile points out she's a cult member too, always blue, even if he's a rapist too.

Except the fact that "Pounce" stole this idea from a journalist who just came out and said so. I don't support theft of intellectual property and won't be buying any more papers or giving until it's resolved. I suggest others do the same.

This campaign is about the power of community.

We are building a movement of diverse leaders, trusted elected officials, and community advocates standing together. We've won critical endorsements from trusted leaders like Senator Jeff Merkley, Rep. Alissa Keny-Guyer for House District 46, Commissioner Jo Ann Hardesty, pro-choice organizations, major unions, teachers, environmentalists, and more.
