 * * NOTICE OF TORT CLAIM * * ***

Greetings,

Please be advised that on January 27, 2025, I was subjected to a traffic stop by Portland Police. I was detained, my vehicle searched, and I was arrested. These actions were not taken pursuant to any exceptions to my state and federal constitutional rights to be free from unreasonable search and seizures, my reasonable expectation of privacy under the United States Constitution, and the privacy to which I have a right under the Oregon Constitution. Therefore, the stop and the events following the stop were violative of those same rights, as well as constituting common law torts.

I write this letter in order to comply with the requirements of ORS 30.275, the "Oregon Tort Claims Act."

Very Truly Yours,

Antonio L. Howard
