RESOLUTION No.Urges Cessation of Combat Operations in Iraq and the Return of US Troops
(Resolution)

WHEREAS, the Portland City Council supports the men and women deployed in Iraq, and honors the memory of those who have lost their lives in the war; and

WHEREAS, U.S. involvement in Iraq has resulted in the deaths of more than 2,800 U.S. troops, and the wounding and disabling of more than 21,000 U.S. military personnel to date; and

WHEREAS, the costs of the call-up of Oregon National Guard members for deployment in Iraq has been significant, as reckoned in lost lives, combat injuries, psychic trauma, disruption of family life, financial hardship for individuals, families and businesses, interruption of careers and damage to the fabric of civic life in many Oregon communities; and

WHEREAS, the war and occupation have also cost as many as 600,000 Iraqi deaths, including men, women and children, according to an October 11 study by published by the British medical journal the Lancet; and

WHEREAS, countless more Iraqis have been maimed, traumatized and wounded, or have suffered the destruction of homes, schools, sanitation and water treatment plants, hospitals and the environment; and

WHEREAS, more than $343 billion has been appropriated by Congress to fund military operations and reconstruction in Iraq to date, rather than to fund desperately needed education, health care, housing, nutrition and other social services in the United States, and humanitarian assistance abroad; and

WHEREAS, the more than $419 million spent by Portland taxpayers to date on the war and occupation in Iraq could have provided one year's Head Start for nearly 56,000 Portland children; or one year's medical insurance for more than 250,000 Portland children; or one year's salary for over 7,000 public school teachers in Portland; or more than 3,700 additional housing units in Portland, or over 20,000 four year scholarships at public universities in Oregon, according to the National Priorities Project; and

WHEREAS, the Oregon AFL-CIO, in October, 2005 in convention, approved a resolution including, "...because there can be no more rapid return than now, the Oregon National Guard be immediately returned to their homes and families and that the health care benefits they receive while serving their country be continued upon their return home as long as they have no other source of equally comprehensive health care benefits," and

WHEREAS, in October 2002, the United States Congress adopted a Joint Resolution to authorize the use of United States Armed Forces in Iraq on the basis of imminent

RESOLUTION No. 35301

36459

Adopt a resolution to welcome home Portland-based Oregon National Guard (Resolution)

WHEREAS, since 2003, many Oregon National Guard members and other Armed Services from the City of Portland have been serving with courage and dedication in the conflict in Iraq;

WHEREAS, these Oregon National Guard members and other soldiers are our sons, daughters, fathers, mothers, brothers, sisters, neighbors, and friends;

WHEREAS, a major contingent of Oregon National Guard members returned home from Iraq on March 25, 2005;

WHEREAS, we recognize the stress and turmoil Portland families had to endure while their relatives and friends were serving in Iraq;

WHEREAS, we offer our community support to those members of the Oregon National Guard and other Armed Services members who are returning home after a year or more of duty in Iraq;

WHEREAS, while opinions differ on the merits of the United States waging war in Iraq without the sanction of the United Nations, we urge support of the Oregon National Guard and other Armed Services assigned to duty in Iraq, as well as their families;

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED that the Portland City Commission hereby officially welcomes home and honors all Portland-based soldiers from the conflict in Iraq;

THEREFORE BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that we urge all citizens of Portland to support the successful reentry of soldiers into civilian life by allowing them to return to their jobs and providing educational opportunities;
