

The Most Important Event in 1937

FOR ALL PERSONS ENGAGED IN THE
SERIOUS BUSINESS OF MAKING A LIVING

WILL BE THE

MASS MEETING

of all Credit Unionists and their friends in the

Benson High School Auditorium

Monday, December 6

at 8:00 P. M.

Reviewing the life work of the late

Edward A. Filene
World Citizen

{ Internationally Renowned Economist,
Merchant, Cooperator, Philanthropist;
Founder of 20th Century Fund; Founder of Good Will Fund; Sponsor of Credit Unions.

HEAR

Roy F. Bergengren

{ Managing Director of the Credit Union
National Association; Former Executive Secretary of the Credit Union National Extension Bureau; Author, Lecturer, Attorney; Editor of the BRIDGE.

HEAR

Earl Rentfro

{ Executive Secretary of the Cuna Mutual Society; Former National Director from and Managing Director from Missouri.
Informed and Entertaining Speaker.

Probably no living man is better qualified than Mr. Bergengren to tell of Mr. Filene's tireless efforts to improve conditions for the masses, of his pioneering in shorter working hours and higher pay, of his struggle to interest producers in methods which would place commodities formerly considered luxuries within reach of the worker, of his relentless fight against enormous interest costs for small loans and unjustifiable overcharges, of his sincere effort to educate the masses in the management of money so that men might of their own right stand financially free and independent.

THERE WILL BE NO COST OF ANY KIND

Plenty of parking space. Bring the family and friends.

Under auspices of the Oregon Mutual Credit League
306 Studio Building, Portland, Oregon