Occupation (Present employment – Paid or Unpaid)

Workforce Development/ Human Service Specialist

Occupational Background (Previous employment – Paid or Unpaid)

I have worked at Portland Community College for the past 15 years on numerous state, federal, local, grant funded programs with differing program measurable outcomes that has required me to provide resources to address the barriers of socially impacted populations in the area of employment and training. My education exceeds an Advanced Degree in Public Administration; I am an elected Precinct Committee Person for Multnomah County, a Minority Evaluator for the City of Portland, and a Certified Foster Parent of 10 years for the Department of Human Services. I am a "Strong Sense of Service Dedication to Cause" personality type, my passion and determination has allowed me the opportunity to overcome social barriers and assessing community needs and challenges and identifying opportunities to overcome hurdles in my life and in the life of others. I have directly and indirectly advocated for culturally diverse, low-income, Senior/Adult/Youth, disabled, and non-native English populations in Portland's Education, Criminal Justice, Juvenile Justice, Healthcare, and Adult and Family Service (TANF, and Foster care) systems.
