Hello Minda,
Council is flexible with school groups speaking under Communications. The students may come up in groups as you describe with the entire presentation kept to 15 minutes (or less).

The title on the agenda (and announced at the meeting) will read "Request of Minda McCandless for students of French American International School to address Council regarding the Portland Plan." You may then introduce the students, or they may introduce themselves as they come up to speak.

Kind regards,

Sue Parsons

Hello Karla,

I have a question and a clarification re: the communication spots.

1. I will have five groups presenting, but would like to request the five spots (as below) for this reason -- two groups' presentations are around two minutes each and the two others are about 3.30 (the other one is three minutes). Is that ok if in total we definitely stay under 15 minutes?

2. The names are not exactly as below. They are :

Ian Barnett and Hadley Wilhoite (combined) Joseph Devlin Katie Richardson and Avery Poirier (combined) Juliana Chapman, Militsa Zaklan Miller, Kate Hollingshead (combined) Utkarsh Yadav and Andrew Krantz (combined)

By combined I mean the whole group is presenting in around three minutes.

Hi Minda,

Sorry, but you're first email may have gotten caught up in the City's email firewall. I just pulled this one out of our daily list of "junk box summary".

Unfortunately, we only schedule our public communications 2 months in advance. Please check back around April 9th and I'm sure those dates will be available.

Also, in addition to the names we require an address, phone number and what it is you will be speaking about.

Regards,
Karla
