

REGIONAL
ARTS & CULTURE
COUNCIL

May 1, 2009

TO: Mayor Sam Adams, City of Portland

CC: Nell Wagenaar, Administrative Coordinator, Office of Neighborhood Involvement
Jennifer Yocom, Arts & Culture Director, Office of Mayor Adams
Pollyanne Birge, Arts & Culture Coordinator, Office of Mayor Adams
Sue Parsons, Assistant Council Clerk, City of Portland

FROM: Eloise Damrosch, Executive Director ed

RE: Board Reappointment for the Regional Arts & Culture Council

We would like to reappoint Jim Neill, who has consented to serve his third term on the Regional Arts & Culture Council (RACC) Board of Directors as a representative for the City of Portland.

Please reappoint:

Position#	Board Member	Reappointment
6	Jim Neill	third term ending 6/30/11

We have confirmed that all applications are on file with ONI. All applications received over the last year were considered by our Leadership Development Team and some candidates are being considered for roles on RACC committees.

Thank you for your commitment to the Regional Arts & Culture Council. We look forward to carrying out the RACC mission to the citizens of the City of Portland and the region so that through vision, leadership and service RACC will work to integrate arts and culture in all aspects of community life.

Mr. Neill's bio follows this page.

REGIONAL ARTS & CULTURE COUNCIL

FY09-10 BOARD MEMBER BIO

Jim Neill is a partner with Davis Wright Tremaine, LLP in Portland. He received his Bachelor of Science (BS) from Oregon State University in 1967 and Doctor of Jurisprudence (JD) from Willamette University School of Law in 1971. Community activities include serving on the board for Friends of the Performing Arts Center, Portland Rose Festival Association, Professional Services Coordinating Counsel, Holladay Park Hospital, Healthlink, Leukemia Society of Oregon, and Portland Civic Theater. He currently serves on the board for the Mt. Hood Cultural Center.