

From: Karen Berry [<mailto:karenberry.pi@gmail.com>]

Sent: Thursday, September 18, 2014 2:52 PM

To: Planning and Sustainability Commission

Subject: Protect West Hayden Island

I agree with Portland Audubon that:

The City should not convert critical natural areas or openspaces to industrial use. If the City needs more industrial land, it should focus on cleaning up its 900 acres of brownfields, intensifying use of its industrial land base, and prevent organizations like the Port of Portland from converting existing industrial lands to other uses in order to make a profit

Karen Berry, 3124 N. E. 24th Ave., Portland 97212