Commission

My name is Patricia Bellamy.
Thank you for the opportunity to speak out against building the Pembina propane terminal. I'm speaking today as a Portland resident with over 40 years experiences as a Registered Nurse and nearly all of those years caring for critically ill, injured, and yes, burn patients who are among the most painful and challenging to care for and rehabilitate. From day one nurses are taught to advocate for our patients, clients and communities, for health and safety.

Prevention is key in that ^{on} advocacy along with knowing risks verses benefits in decision making. Imparting, no, pleading with you the decision makers, to use the same ethical and logical approach in your decisions today. Does the very few permanent jobs really justify the risk this propane terminal poses to the community and fragile Columbia river environment? This supposedly safe propane is

"Terrorist encouraged ^{or} to use Propane as a weapon..."

Please listen to the arguments on the side of risks and not the few quoted "jobs, jobs, jobs" and profits arguments. Vote NO on Rembrina and prevent harm and injury to our community and beautiful environment.
