Hi Xan,

Every Wednesday at our 9:30 a.m. session we offer the first five people who have signed up in advance to speak for three minutes on the topic of their choosing. The next available dates are May 13 (currently, I have 2 spots left), May 27th (2 spots available as well). After these May dates June 3rd I have 4 spots and 5 spots on June 10th.

Let me know if any of these dates will work for you and everyone who wishes to speak must send in their own request. It has to include their name, address, phone number, date they wish to speak and what they will be speaking about. They can send that to me at my email, address or hand deliver to my office.

Regards,

Karla

Subject: City Council Agenda

Hello Karla,

I am wondering how to go about getting on the agenda for the Portland City Council. I am working with City Repair, organizing community in my neighborhood, before which there had never been any interaction between neighbors.

Currently, an ordinance exists only for Intersection Repair, and I am hoping for a mid-block painting ordinance. Our 'block', in the Cully Neighborhood, is actually three blocks long, and people naturally congregate at its mid-point, not in the intersection.

We are hoping to paint this summer, and I understand the process to create an ordinance is somewhat lengthy, so I would truly appreciate being able to present my case for haste to the Council! Our community is so ready for a focus to pull them together!

I look forward to your reply.

Best regards,

Xan
