

“I participate in the city’s Charitable Campaign because checking a few boxes can change a lot of lives: It’s that easy, it’s that simple, it’s that important.”

- Commissioner Dan Saltzman

“The City’s charitable giving campaign allows me to donate without ever having to write a check. It’s simple, convenient, and leverages great things for our city.”

- Commissioner Nick Fish

“The Charitable Campaign is a wonderful opportunity for City employees to share their blessings with children and families when they need it most.”

- Commissioner Randy Leonard

“City of Portland employees give over and above the call of duty in many ways. The charitable giving program’s success is just one way that City staff give back to our community, and I appreciate everyone who participates.”

- Commissioner Amanda Fritz

The City’s Combined Charitable Campaign is being extended for one week. The new deadline for returning pledge forms to your bureau representative is November 7.

You make a difference.

Please give.