

October 17 city wide email

Poster Van at top

Do you know there are 15 participating charitable organizations representing over 400 charities! Click here to find your favorite charity.

Do you need a pledge form? Click here to print your copy.
You can also contact your bureau rep: Click here to find your rep.

“City of Portland employees have a history of proudly giving back to the community they serve through charity. I encourage you to participate in this year’s Charitable giving campaign to continue this tradition. I know I will.”

- Mayor Sam Adams

“The Charitable Campaign is a wonderful opportunity for city employees to share their blessings with children and families when they need it most.”

- Commissioner Randy Leonard

“The City’s Charitable Giving Campaign gives us the opportunity to support mission-driven non-profits that serve our community. Thanks to the generosity of City of Portland employees, we can make a difference.”

- Commissioner Nick Fish

“City of Portland employees give over and above the call of duty in many ways. The charitable giving program's success is just one way that City staff give back to our community, and I appreciate everyone who participates.”

- Commissioner Amanda Fritz

“I participate in the City’s charitable campaign because checking a few boxes can change a lot of lives. It’s that easy. It’s that simple. It’s that important.”

Commissioner Dan Saltzman